When the Sun Goes Down (cont.) Song No.6

When the day is done and the sinking sun settles down in the Western sea; ___ ___
Or it goes to ground at the back of town
with the roofs and the spires and trees. ___

When the weather's fine and it's evening time
it will paint us a fiery sky! ___
It's a sailor's sign that to-morrow's fine;
Needn't ask me the reason why! ___

All the people here watch the big red sphere
going down at the end of day; ___
And they sing along to the famous song
as it sets over Galway Bay! ___
